ProjectX Target 5
Today January 30 2019
Start 11:54 AM

Soft bright yellow. Yellow ball. Round ball. Yellow sphere light. Particles going around it and spiraling into it. The sun.

Land, no. Water, no. Mountain, no. Structure perhaps. Lifeform, no. Energy perhaps.
Structure or energy.

Smooth silky.

Choice: Energy.

12:04 noon End session.
soft bright yellow ball round sphere light sun

Feedback: The target was a hot air balloon being filled up, it has a big yellow circle in the center of the photo, easily recognizable to my drawing, however the target was to be a structure and not energy. I still rate this one highly due to correlation.

Note: When I started this session, I noticed that the yellow sphere was recognizable from the last session where I described a lamp. I now see on this target feedback photo also the red floor shape that goes around the yellow. During this session I had the feeling that the previous session was imprinted from this session, now that I see the target picture I see that this is the case not only due to the yellow sphere but also the red that goes around the yellow. Target contamination, perhaps since I chose to do this one right after the previous one. Interesting make notes and conclusions learn about this phenomenon!!!
