There are many grasses forming a rounded circular fencing in the background. An element of some height but not very tall, is part of the fencing. Yellow on the lower right side.

One can crawl into the back (background, north, into picture) and it is like a house or a cabin. I have drawn light blue sky and a white cloud.

7:58 PM I look at the five pictures.

Women dancing in grass skirts. Looks like Colorado desert. Asian ancient statue. Indoors from typical home showing the green staircase and wooden floor in hallway. A man posing in front of fruit and vegetable stall holding crate of red fruit in hands.

I am tempted to say it resembles the skirts, but the red Colorado mountain has some resemblance. The three others are not similar. On the skirts picture there is the yellow element closer to ground.

Oh I should have probed the elements a bit more. Never mind, I will choose the picture with the skirts.

8:02 PM Choice: picture with dancing ladies.

Feedback: The target was the Asian statue. Did the signal go wrong, to a different picture? How does the RV mind know how to find the requested picture? I don't know how to work with these targets with this protocol.

8:04 PM End notes.
